The DuPont™ Performance Alliance™ now has a partnership with Hertz that offers the potential of Marketing Phase fees being paid for your shop.

When you choose Hertz as your primary rental car company and you do not have an existing agreement with Hertz, you may qualify for your Performance Alliance™ Marketing Phase fees, $175.00 per month, to be paid for you by Hertz for as long as your Hertz agreement is in force!

If your shop is certified on the Operations Phase of the Performance Alliance™, or you need assistance in becoming certified, simply contact the Alliance Implementation Manager for your area and get the process started:
